PETER BAVASI

EXECUTIVE VICE-PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

The talented and energetic young man who runs the Blue Jays, 34 year-old Peter Bavasi, was literally born into baseball. His dad, Emil J. ("Buzzie") Bavasi, is one of the great baseball executives of all time.

Born 31 October 1942 in Bronxville, New York, it was during his father's 17-year association with the Brooklyn Dodgers that Peter grew up into the world behind the scenes in major league baseball. That, of course, was one of the most exciting and colorful periods in recent baseball history. It was the era of Jackie Robinson, Gil Hodges, Roy Campanella, battles with the arch-rival New York Giants, and countless other personalities and events that are the flavor and substance of baseball.

After a childhood which he spent in dugouts, clubhouses, and board rooms, Peter obtained a B.A. degree in 1964 from St. Mary's University in Moraga, California. After graduation he married the former Judy Marzonie and returned to baseball as business manager of the Los Angeles Dodgers' Albuquerque farm club.

Just two years later, in 1966, he became general manager of the Dodgers' Santa Barbara farm club, his first time at the helm of a professional baseball operation at age 24. Peter returned to the Dodgers' top farm club at Albuquerque in 1968, but his stay was brief. In 1969 he joined his father to launch the expansion San Diego Padres franchise. As Director of Minor League Operations, Peter put together the nucleus of the Padres' bright young player development system.

In 1973, Peter stepped up to become vice-president and general manager of the Padres, a post which he held until accepting the challenge of building the Blue Jays, 18 June 1976. His appointment, coupled with the fact that his father is president of the San Diego Padres, marks the first time in baseball history that a father and son have operated two major league clubs at the same time.

In his new post, Peter faces the exciting prospects and monumental challenges of bringing American League baseball to Toronto. And though the youthful front office boss of the Blue Jays has a brand new franchise, he has a lifetime of experience to bring to the job.

FREE AGENT DRAFT RULE

Major league and National Association clubs participate in two meetings a year for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent. Selection of a free agent entitles the club to the exclusive rights of negotiation with the player for a specified period (from the date of selection until 15 days prior to the next draft meeting). Draft meetings are held in June and January.

There are two categories to each draft meeting:

(1) Regular Phase – Selection of free agents in inverse order of major league standings. Each organization may select only one player for each of its major league, Class AAA, and AA rosters but is not limited in the number of picks for Class A level. Minor league clubs select in the same order as their parent clubs.

(2) Secondary Phase – Selection of free agents who had been drafted at a previous meeting, but who were not subsequently signed during the negotiation period. It is possible for a club to redraft a player whom it had been unable to sign after the original selection, but only with the written consent of that player. Order of selection in the secondary phase is determined by lot.

DESIGNATED HITTER FOR THE PITCHER RULE

A hitter may be designated to bat for the starting pitcher and all subsequent pitchers in any game without otherwise affecting the status of the pitcher(s) in the game. A Designated Hitter for the pitcher must be selected prior to the game and must be included in the lineup card presented to the umpire-in-chief.

It is not mandatory that a club designate a hitter for the pitcher, but failure to do so prior to the game precludes the use of a Designated Hitter for that game.

Pinch hitters for a Designated Hitter may be used. Any substitute hitter for a Designated Hitter himself becomes a Designated Hitter. A replaced Designated Hitter shall not re-enter the game in any capacity.

The Designated Hitter may be used defensively, continuing to bat in the same position in the batting order, but the pitcher must then bat in the place of the substituted defensive player, unless more than one substitution is made, and the manager then must designate their spots in the batting order.

A runner may be substituted for the Designated Hitter and the runner assumes the role of Designated Hitter.

A Designated Hitter is "locked" into the batting order. No multiple substitutions may be made that will alter the batting rotation of the Designated Hitter.

Once the game pitcher is switched from the mound to a defensive position this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once a pinch hitter bats for any player in the batting order and then enters the game to pitch, this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once the game pitcher bats for the Designated Hitter this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once a Designated Hitter assumes a defensive position this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

SCORING RULES: PINCH-HITTERS

(Adopted by the Official Records Committee)

A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. (If the team bats around and a pinch-hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch-hitter during that second time up.)

A substitute hitter for a designated hitter is both a pinch-hitter and a designated hitter on his first time at bat. On subsequent trips to the plate he is a designated hitter only. (Until now such a substitute hitter had not been considered a pinch-hitter. American League pinch-hitting records for 1973-1975 will be recompiled to conform with this new definition.)

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS

A batting champion must have 502 or more actual plate appearances. (The equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games.) If, however, there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at bats, then that player shall be awarded the batting championship.

EARNED-RUN AVERAGE CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS

To win the earned-run average championship a pitcher must pitch 162 or more innings and have the lowest earned-run average.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS

A fielding champion must appear in 108 games at his position, except a catcher, who must appear in 81 games.

COMPUTING BATTING AVERAGE

To determine a batting average, divide the number of hits by the number of official times at bat.

COMPUTING EARNED RUN AVERAGE

To determine an earned-run average, multiply the number of earned runs by nine and divide that result by the number of innings pitched.

SAVE RULE

Saves shall be awarded to relief pitchers under the following criteria:

Rule (10:20) tells the official scorer to credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all 3 of the following conditions:

1 – He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and

2 – He is not the winning pitcher; and

3 – He qualifies under one of the following conditions:

a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or

b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces) or

c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEWS

No inning of an American League night game can start after 1:00 a.m., local time. Any inning started prior to 1:00 a.m. can be completed.

Saturday night games in Baltimore, Boston, and New York must be halted at 11:59 p.m., local time, regardless of conditions. In other night games in Baltimore, no inning can start after 11:59 p.m., but any inning started before that time may be completed.

Any game, regardless of length, called because of the time curfew, becomes a suspended game and must be completed from the exact point of interruption before the teams play their next scheduled game against each other.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE

A game terminated by curfew or by a pre-arranged time limit is a suspended game only if it has progressed far enough to be an official game (i.e., 4½ to 5 innings).

A game terminated by light failure is a suspended game anytime after it begins.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the same two clubs on the same ground. If this is not possible, other provisions for resumption are specified in American League regulation 3.8.

A game called at the end of a completed inning after nine innings for any reason shall be a suspended game. This rule became effective in 1969. Formerly, the game would have been declared a tie and replayed in its entirety at a later date.

The completion of a suspended game is the continuation of the original game. Any player may be replaced by a player who had not been in the game prior to the suspension. No player removed before the suspension may be returned to the lineup.

NIGHT GAMES AND TWI-NIGHT DOUBLE-HEADERS

Any game scheduled to start after 6:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain, or for any other reason, it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6:01 p.m. it will be considered a night game. Twi-night double-headers shall be included in double-header statistics and shall also be considered two night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same date (separate admissions), the games shall be day and night and count as single games.

THE "MAGIC NUMBER"

To determine a club's "magic number" in a pennant race, take the number of games left to play, add one, and then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

METROPOLITAN TORONTO

The capitol of Ontario and Canada's second-largest city, Toronto is an exciting and unusual cosmopolitan metropolis of 2.7 million people. Within a 50-mile radius there are nearly 4½ million people. In fact, nearly 35% of Ontario's entire population lives in Metro Toronto.

Metro Toronto is made up of five boroughs – York, East York, North York, Etobicoke, and Scarborough – and the City of Toronto, which in 1967 amalgamated with a metropolitan form of government. The current Metro Chairman is Paul Godfrey and the Mayor of the City of Toronto is David Crombie.

A dynamic cultural centre, Toronto is the only major North American city outside of New York with three independently-owned English language newspapers. There are 9 AM and 6 FM radio stations, 6 television stations, and the headquarters for Canada's English television networks.

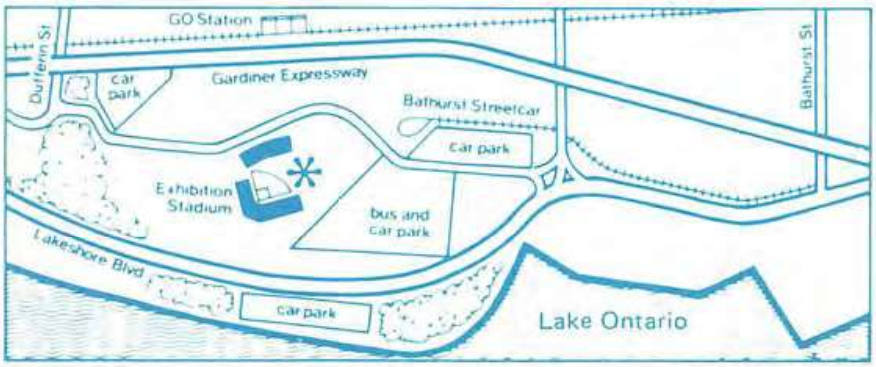
Toronto is also called "People City". The quality of life is perhaps unmatched by any other city of its size. Exciting nightlife, entertainment, recreation, dining, shopping, all abound. The streets teem with people and excitement in a friendly, cosmopolitan atmosphere.

The skyline boasts majestic new buildings, including the world's largest free-standing structure, the 1805-foot CN Tower. A downtown business core of modern commercial structures is vibrant and alive with magnificent shopping complexes and picturesque neighbourhoods in the heart of the city.

Ontario Place, a provincial park and marina built into Lake Ontario, and the huge Metro Toronto Zoo are favorite tourist highlights, as is the Ontario Science Centre. More than 18 million people visited Toronto in 1975. Of those, 4 million came from the United States.

Toronto continues to grow, as it has since the opening of the striking City Hall in 1965. Excellent public transportation facilities, including a clean, efficient subway system, make Toronto an exciting place to visit or to live.

The Blue Jays join Toronto's other big league attractions – NHL hockey with the Maple Leafs, CFL football with the Argonauts, NASL soccer with the Metros, and big-time horse racing at Woodbine and at Greenwood – in making Toronto an even more exciting place to be.



EXHIBITION STADIUM

Toronto's new Exhibition Stadium is situated on the grounds of Exhibition Place at the edge of Lake Ontario in downtown Toronto. The fairgrounds site is a 350-acre complex of exhibition buildings, amusement park, landscaped gardens, restaurants, and concert facilities. It is the site of the Canadian National Exhibition, the largest fair of its kind in the world, drawing over 3 million visitors annually in its three-week run from mid-August through Labour Day.

The Stadium also overlooks Ontario Place, a provincial park and entertainment complex of restaurants, exhibits, cinemas, recreation facilities, and a marina, in a strikingly modern, idyllic setting.

The Stadium is owned by the Municipality of Metropolitan Toronto and operated by the Exhibition Stadium Corporation. Built at a cost of $17.8 million and financed by Metropolitan Toronto and a loan from the Province of Ontario, the Stadium is the home of the Blue Jays and the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League. It is easily accessible by car, GO Train, and by excellent public transportation from anywhere in Metro Toronto.

CLUB LOGO

The Blue Jays logo was designed by the Toronto design firm of Savage Sloan, Ltd. It depicts a stylized Blue Jay on a red baseball outline incorporating a maple leaf, and features two shades of blue, and red.

The logo was selected to represent three facets of the club's identity: the team name, baseball, and the fact that the team is Canadian.

The logo is strikingly recognizable and contemporary in design, but also comfortable within the long tradition of baseball team emblems, and symbolizes the Blue Jays' brand new start in a grand old game.

NAME THE TEAM CONTEST

A Name the Team Contest was held in June and July 1976 to select a name for the Toronto American League baseball club. Over 30,000 entries were received by the contest deadline on 17 July. Over 4,000 individual names were submitted, and from this group a list of ten names was drawn up by a panel of judges appointed by the Directors. The Directors chose the name "Blue Jays" from this list and announced their decision on 13 August 1976. The team officially became Toronto Blue Jays Baseball Club at that time.

A total of 154 people submitted the name Blue Jays, and a drawing was held to select a grand prize winner from those who submitted the winning entry. Dr. William Mills of Etobicoke, Ontario, won a pair of season tickets to all Blue Jays home games in 1977 and an all-expenses paid trip for himself and his family to watch the Blue Jays at spring training in Dunedin, Florida. Nine runners-up also won season tickets.

In making the announcement of the name, the Directors noted that "the Blue Jay is a North American bird, bright blue in colour, with white undercovering and a black necklace. It is strong, aggressive, and inquisitive. It dares to take on all comers, yet is down-to-earth, gutsy, and good-looking."
